

Angelo LoBosco

Executive Vice President
Acquisitions

As Executive Vice President of Acquisitions, Angelo LoBosco specializes in real estate investment and financing and is responsible for the development and management of equity partner relationships.

Mr. LoBosco brings more than 25 years of diverse real estate and finance expertise in the areas of acquisition, disposition, workout / restructuring, financial structuring, development, and investment banking. His experience encompasses over $5 billion of transaction volume in both institutional and entrepreneurial environments.

Over the course of his career, Mr. LoBosco has created multiple investment platforms with both institutional and private investors. Most recently, he functioned as an investment advisor to the Metzler United States Real Estate Fund (MUSREF), and Union Investment's DIFA Funds. In this capacity, Mr. LoBosco actively advised on the investment, structuring and financing of approximately $1 billion of core real estate investments (14 properties) for MUSREF and about $1.5 billion of core office assets (8 properties) for DIFA's funds in major United States markets. Both the Metzler and DIFA funds outperformed the NCREIF Property Index.

During the last major U.S. market correction in the early 1990's, Mr. LoBosco was with Citicorp Real Estate where he restructured over $1.5 billion of mortgages and facilitated the disposition of over $400 million of assets for the bank. This includes the sale of a 750,000sf portfolio of three Class A office buildings in Stamford, CT which was the largest transaction in the US in 1993.

Mr. LoBosco holds a Bachelor's degree in Economics from Brown University and a Master of Business Administration degree in Finance and Real Estate from Columbia University Business School.
